SceneMakers wins Best of State 2003 for Meeting & Convention Services

Salt Lake City, June 12, 2003—On behalf of SceneMakers, LLC, Danny L. Setjo, Senior Partner & Vice President of Operations, will receive the coveted 2003 Best of State® award for Convention and Meeting Services on June 21, 2003 at The Best of State® Awards Gala.

Danny L. Setjo is an owner and co-founder of SceneMakers. He attended Woodbury University where he studied Commercial Design and Space Planning. Without Danny's perseverance, exceptional leadership, and design expertise, SceneMakers would not be the flourishing company it is today.

The Best of State® Awards Gala, in media partnership with ABC4, Newspaper Agency Corporation, Salt Lake Magazine, Reagan Billboard and the Daily Herald, is the event of the year, as Utah recognizes and honors its most outstanding individuals and organizations across eleven major categories.

Best of State® is dedicated to promoting higher visibility and public awareness for outstanding individuals, businesses, and organizations throughout Utah, thereby increasing personal and organization prestige, state and local pride, and in-state business opportunities. Honoring those who are Excelling and Surpassing All Else™, Best of State® is the premier public forum for awards and recognition in the state of Utah.

Based in Salt Lake City, Utah, SceneMakers is a leading national event planning and production firm specializing in corporate special events, conferences, meetings, tradeshow design, product launches, set design, private weddings and exclusive entertainment.
